

Regional Communications Biography

Corinne Diemert
Vice President – Sales Valeo North America

Corinne Diemert serves as Vice President – Sales Valeo North America, with responsibility for sales growth in North America as well as growth with General Motors and Ford Motor Company globally. She is a member of the North American Leadership Team and directs a diverse group of more than 70 sales professionals.

Ms. Diemert has a diverse professional background, beginning her Valeo North America career more than 28 years ago in Plant Logistics; then moving to Program Management, and finally, prior to her current position, serving as Head of Operations, launching Valeo's first manufacturing site in the Detroit area – Valeo's Highland Park Front End Module facility. In her current role as Vice President – Sales, her leadership contributed to the company tripling its sales over the past five years.

Ms. Diemert is the U.S. Champion of Valeo Women Connected, a worldwide network devoted to the career development of women in the organization. Additionally, she is a member of Inforum, OESA and the French-American Chamber of Commerce.