

Membership Profile

The best way to stay connected with Inforum is utilizing your membership profile and directory.

The more you fill out in your profile the better!

Update your membership profile

Add in as much information as you can. Specifically, your occupation and industry as those are one the main filters in the Membership Directory.

Notice that you don't have a photo or an old headshot? Upload your most current picture, so people can put a face to the name!

Your profile also gives you the ability to select what mailing lists you wish to be a part of with affinity groups, industry groups, and other Inforum initiatives.

Add your LinkedIn and Facebook to your profile, so you can continue to build your network on other platforms.

Membership Directory

The membership directory has over 3,700 Inforum members.

You can filter to find fellow members by name, company, region, occupation, and industry.

Once you find the person you want to connect click on their profile to find their contact information.

When introducing yourself let the person know you are an Inforum member!
