

Leading & Succeeding in Any Work Environment

Time is tighter than ever; volatility is endless in the face of new and unforeseen challenges, and the demands on you and your leaders seem endless. And all of that means leadership training has never been more important.

Adapt & Lead: Thriving in Today's Workplace is a new course designed to address succeeding in today's work environment, which could be hybrid, fully remote, or on-site. This innovative program for leaders utilizes technology in a way that is not burdensome on the learners.

and LEAD™

OVERVIEW

The six-week program allows participants to practice key learnings in the workplace and receive ongoing feedback. Specific program elements include:

- Mental and physical wellness - for yourself and your team, including the importance of role modelling good behavior and keeping burnout at bay
- Why & how to lead with empathy
- Leading through authentic, personal connections and reducing dependence on formal communications
- Leading through change
- Helping remote and hybrid teams maintain career paths (overcoming the loss of connection and facetime, etc.)
- Crisis leadership - COVID, supply chain disruptions, recruiting/staffing challenges won't be the last crises for today's leaders

FORMAT

- Interactive, self-directed learning through Inforum's new learning management system, Lessonly
- Text messages reinforce self-directed learning
- Virtual anchoring workshops to bring the cohort together, re-enforce learning and foster strategic connections

ABOUT INFORUM

Founded in 1962, Inforum is the only professional organization in Michigan - and one of a few in the country - that combines strategic connections, proven professional development programs, a respected forum for new ideas, and original research to accelerate careers for women and boost talent initiatives for companies. Inforum programs serve a broad range of women in different stages and types of careers - from nonprofit professionals, to emerging and rising corporate leaders, tech entrepreneurs, veterans and corporate board leaders. Inforum, a 501(c)(3) charitable and educational nonprofit, also conducts and publishes original research on women's leadership influence.
